PRAYER LETTER DEC. 2020

Brethren it excites me to conclude 2020, as God’s mercy was evident. Gods WORK continues to expand, enlarge, evangelism and enlisting of disciples continues to be our primary objective, our progress largely depends on your faithfulness in interceding for Br.eric, and all the team he is working with

FELLOWSHIP :

In the month of December 2020 278 souls came to Christ, 32 baptized, 27 dedicated children, 65 disciplined, in eastern Uganda there is need to get land and funds to construct more churches pray earnestly for these brethren.

- ❖ Mission points 35-47 was average attendance
- ❖ Sunday school Sundays 20-25 was average attendance
- ❖ Bible study mid weeks average 25-28 in attendance in our churches

COMMUNICATION:

Extensive and usual interactions have been made on phone and personal visitations to encourage pastors

BLESSINGS:

In Dec.2020 we were able to get funds to make benches for our 5 churches the detail and photos will follow in Jan 2021 report.

BETHS BLESSINGS the process is on going as goats and chicken are being traced/purchased and bargain is being done to secure more for most pastors and the photos, videos and details will follow this has greatly changed the lives of many pastors, elders and church members

EXTENSION:

We continue to seek Gods enablement in more labourers, souls, ministry resources, and more peace in Uganda, South Sudan and other countries in Africa

TESTIMONIES:

There is clear sign that the field is ready and the harvest is plenteous surely we need labourers pray that the master sends forth true labourers

Refugee camps continue to experience challenges in various ways: Transport and resources to reach them as they are truly hungry for the word.

Prayers

- ❖ Prayer for wisdom, to BLIND FAITH MINISTRIES and Gods favour
- ❖ Land title to come out quickly
- ❖ Brother Baxter to get his support and come to mission field with his family
- ❖ Ministry resources: Bibles, transport systems as bicycles, motor cycles, vehicles to enable quick movement, land for churches and finally finance.
- ❖ Pray for Gods grace upon the leadership
- ❖ Uganda to have peace after elections
